Your Responsibilities

- Legal advice to the Executive Board, management and specialist departments on all federation-specific legal matters
- Drafting, reviewing and negotiating contracts, particularly in the areas of sponsorship, media rights, events, marketing and cooperation
- Handling sports law issues, including regulations, statutes, disciplinary proceedings and athlete rights, service and work contracts
- Representing the FIL in anti-doping matters
- Compliance management: development and monitoring of guidelines on ethics, data protection (GDPR), anti-doping and good governance
- Supporting international projects and cooperation with national and international sports organizations
- Legal analysis of new legislative developments (sports law, association law, international private law, labor law)
- Support for federation assemblies, committee meetings and legal reports
- Representing the federation to external partners, authorities and law firms

Your Profile

- Completed law degree (Mag. iur., LL.M. or equivalent)
  - Several years of relevant professional experience, preferably in Austrian sports law, association law, media law, contract law and/or international law
  - Experience in dealing with international organizations and intercultural issues
  - Excellent German and English language skills
  - Strong understanding of governance, compliance and ethical standards in sport
  - Independent, structured and solution-oriented working style
  - Willingness to undertake occasional international business travel

We Offer

- A multifaceted position of significant responsibility in an international Olympic sports federation
  - Direct involvement in shaping guidelines, processes and developments in global luge sport
  - Flexible work arrangements
  - Open, sports-enthusiastic team culture
  - Appropriate, market-based compensation depending on qualifications and experience
